FAX: 708.367.8990

NOTE: The Organization: Founded in 1938, Bible League International (BLI) is an evangelical ministry that is called by God to provide Scriptures and training worldwide so that people prepared by the Holy Spirit will be brought into fellowship with Christ and His Church.

The Opportunity & Vision

World Bible Translation Center (WBTC), an affiliate ministry of BLI, selects and trains mother-tongue/first-language translation teams to produce Easy-to-Read™ translations of the Bible and Bible-related products for selected audiences in the world's top 100 most spoken languages. The associate consultant assists in monitoring project progress and project quality control with a view toward publication and use for evangelism and discipleship in local Christian denominations and partner ministries. The associate consultant checks the quality of a translation by its faithfulness to the original languages (Hebrew, Greek, and Aramaic) and its apparent clarity and readability for the receptor audience in keeping with the best contemporary biblical, missiological, and translation scholarship. This position will be located in Ft. Worth, TX.

Responsibilities Include: Assist EVP of Translation in all areas related to successful implementation and completion of translation projects; perform exegetical checking of back-translations from WBTC projects; participate in the exegetical checking procedures with first-language translators; assist in the planning and organization of translation projects; assist in recruiting and training new project teams; assist in field-testing new translations; assist in the development and revision of resources for first-tongue translators; write articles on translation-related subjects for publication; travel as necessary to carry out the above responsibilities. International travel required. Minimal domestic travel is anticipated; complete other duties as assigned.

Qualifications: Must be a Christian, having a personal relationship with Jesus Christ. Must also agree with BLI's Statement of Faith and conduct him/herself in a Christ-like manner; earned doctorate in biblical studies or a master's degree in biblical studies with a doctorate in a discipline related to translation, such as linguistics; competence in biblical Greek and Hebrew and familiarity with the history, cultures, and literatures of the ancient Near East and Greco-Roman world, as well as knowledge of the methods of current biblical exegesis and interpretation; commitment to the principles of functional equivalence/meaning-based translation with ability to apply these principles as well as insights from linguistic studies to ensure that a translation is properly contextualized for the chosen audience; cross-cultural experience is strongly preferred; experience working in translation projects preferred; ideal candidate will possess a working knowledge of another modern language besides English (oral fluency preferred), as well as Hebrew and Greek; ability to work alone in detailed checking of texts, as well as cooperatively with team members, including those from other theological or ecclesiastical traditions; should be able to write and communicate clearly and simply; must be able to accept constructive feedback and reach consensus on disputed points; ability to organize projects and cooperate in the planning and organization of translation projects; commitment to and competence in shaping the translation process and translation product to meet the needs of ministry partners and churches for the task of evangelism and discipleship; ability and willingness to travel internationally between 10%-15%.

BLI offers outstanding benefits: medical, dental, vision, life, short and long term disability, matching 401(k), paid holidays and PTO. To learn more about the ministry, please visit www.bibleleague.org and www.wbtc.com.

Resume and cover letter can be emailed to hr@bibleleague.org. Please indicate "Translation Consultant Position" in the subject line. You may also fax to 708/367-8990.

GREAT LAKES, IL, United States Army

POSITION: Chaplain Candidate

DATE: 9/15/11

NOTE: The United States Army is in need of highly-qualified applicants for the position of "Chaplain Candidate." You can join a team of spiritual leaders that dates back to the days of General George Washington. It has never been more important than Right Now to answer the call to serve God and Country. Is God calling you for such a time as this? As a Chaplain Officer you will have a ministry to men and women in uniform spanning the globe. Your ministry doesn't stop there. You will not only minister to Soldiers, but their families as well. You will be a preacher, teacher, counselor while also serving as an Army Officer. The Army Chaplaincy differs from that of traditional ministry. The focus of the Army Chaplain Corp is to have "A Ministry of Presence". Unlike traditional Pastoral ministry you will "go to work" everyday with your Soldiers, giving you a unique opportunity for an unparalleled depth of ministry, to the men and women who give their lives to serve the United States of America. Serving God as a Pastor, Rabbi, Imam, or Priest will require you to develop your ministerial skills in seminary and make application of those skills among the community of the faithful. The Army offers the opportunity to learn pastoral skills that will enhance your seminary and pastoral experiences. The Active Duty Army offers a plethora of benefits unrivaled in the civilian world, such as paid vacation, comprehensive medical care, retirement plans, life insurance, and more. ADDITIONAL BENEFITS: While attending seminary, Chaplain Candidates may apply for tuition assistance through the U.S. Army Reserve. You may be eligible for up to 100% of the tuition costs, up to $250 per credit hour with a maximum cap of $4500 per year. This program requires service of at least four years in a U.S. Army Reserve unit once you become a qualified Chaplain. Additional benefits include Advanced Civilian Education. Selected full-time Chaplains are sent to institutions of higher education to get a master's degree in areas such as Ethics, World Religions, Family Life and Resource Management.

REQUIREMENTS: You do not need to wait until ordination to join the Army Chaplaincy. You can train to become an Army Chaplain at the same time you are training for the ministry. The training and experience you will receive as a Chaplain Candidate will add a special dimension to your seminary education. What's more, some seminaries offer academic credit for your training as a Chaplain Candidate. By joining the Army Reserve Chaplain Candidate Program, you will get a head start on Army Chaplain training, as well as all the benefits of being an Army Officer while still in seminary. Few job opportunities of this nature exist for those who have not yet garnered their Masters-level degree. To be eligible for this program, you must: 1. Obtain an ecclesiastical approval from your denomination or faith group.

Educationally, you must: 2. Possess a baccalaureate degree of not less than 120 semester hours. 3. Be a full-time graduate student at an accredited seminary or theological school. 4. Be a U.S. citizen or permanent resident. 5. Be able to receive a favorable background check. 6. Pass a physical exam. NOW IS THE TIME! There has never been a better time to join the Army Chaplain Corp and serve the over one million Soldiers and their families. Whether your desire is to serve Full time or Part time there is a place in the Army Chaplaincy for you! For more detailed information regarding this position, please contact a Chaplain Recruiter at the following phone number: 1-866-684-1571. Someone will be ready and able to answer any questions and guide you through the application process. Please let him know that you viewed this job posting in order to expedite the process.

PRO DEO ET PATRIA! (The Chaplain Corps' official motto: "For God and Country.")
