

WHY SEARCH CHRISTIAN STANDARD INDEX?

- Christian Standard is a weekly journal of the Christian Churches and Churches of Christ which contains articles, editorials, and news briefs.
- Christian Standard Index is an alphabetical compilation of the indexes published in the last issue of Christian Standard from 1967-1993.
- Full text is not available.

SEARCH TITLE PAGE AND SUBJECT LIST

- The Title Page and Subject List contains the title page and introduction exactly as it appears in the print edition and the alphabetically organized list of subject headings used in the Christian Standard.
- View the list alphabetically or use the Find feature in your internet browser toolbar.

SEARCH ACTUAL INDEX

- The Actual Index contains the alphabetically organized lists of subject headings and the corresponding article citations for each subject heading.
- View the list alphabetically or use the Find feature in your internet browser toolbar.

To use the Find feature in your internet browser toolbar:

- Click on Edit in the internet browser toolbar and then click Find in This Page.
- In the text box that appears, enter a search term and click Find Next.
- To search for a new term, click Refresh in your internet browser toolbar.

WORKING WITH SEARCH RESULTS

- Search results display the year, page number, author, and titles of each article.
- Print, Save, and Email functions are available through your internet browser toolbar.
- The Christian Standard is available in the Jessie C. Eury Library. Prior issues are on the third floor.
