Lincoln Christian University

Alumni Encouragement Award
2011 NOMINATION FORM
(submit by April 15, 2011)

Purpose of Award:
To encourage a Lincoln Christian University alumnus/alumnae (from Lincoln Bible Institute, Lincoln Christian College, Lincoln Christian Seminary, or Lincoln Christian University) who has persevered in ministry in the midst of perplexing, tiring, or unusual personal or professional difficulties. Such a person will have dealt with difficult hardships in life and/or ministry, but as James says, that person will see that the testing of their faith has developed perseverance and with it Christian character.

Recipient will receive:
Fees for up to one full week to a place mutually agreed upon where rest and renewal may be sought. Participant may include his/her spouse. Dates of service will be mutually agreed upon.

Guidelines:
1. The Christian service rendered by the individual must be in complete harmony with the purpose and policy of Lincoln Christian University and have accomplished great good in a local ministry/para-church setting.
2. Nomination must be accompanied with a list of reasons for your nomination and must be signed.
3. Nomination must be by someone OTHER THAN a spouse and may come from any alumnus/alumnae, or an active member of a church or ministry team, or a community leader who sees the nominee's work in the community.
4. Candidate will be selected by the Executive Cabinet of the Alumni Association and will be awarded in calendar year 2011.
