

Recognition of Lincoln Christian University Women's Volleyball Team

WHEREAS, participating in athletics helps students learn teamwork, sportsmanship, and the skills to handle competitive situations, and

WHEREAS, studies have shown that girls receive as many benefits from sports as boys, and

WHEREAS, the women's volleyball program at Lincoln Christian University has a tradition of excellence, with a focus on nurturing the team members so they can serve well beyond their years at LCU, and

WHEREAS, the LCU women's volleyball team earned a spot at the national championships of the National Christian College Athletic Association for 15 years in a row, including winning the championship in 1998 and 2003, and

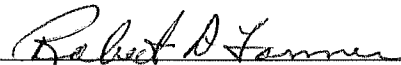

WHEREAS, the LCU women's volleyball team finished their 2011 season with a 21-14 record, and

WHEREAS, the team played extremely competitively at the national championship tournament on Nov. 10-12, 2011 at the Kissimmee Civic Center, losing to the eventual champion and finishing in fourth place nationally, and

WHEREAS, LCU team members Lydia Bunting and Jamie McFadden were named All-Americans and Lydia and Rachel Langseth were named Academic All-Americans,

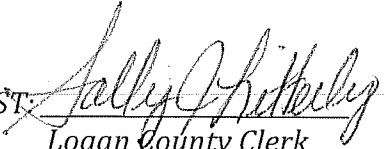

NOW THEREFORE the Logan County Board congratulates LCU volleyball team members Emma Donnelly, Kati Johnson, Stephanie O'Malley, Lydia Bunting, Anna DeVillez, Sopha Hughes, Hannah Taylor, Rachel Langseth, Britney Flora, Jamie McFadden, Emily Sheley, Sammy Nichols, Annie Pickett and Alicia Carson, and coaches Jason Farr, David Donnelly and Dave Ulrich on an outstanding season and wishes them continued success in their athletic endeavors.

Recognition approved by a vote of the Logan County Board on Jan. 18, 2012.

 Chairman of Logan County Board

ATTEST:

 Logan County Clerk