Lincoln Christian University was founded in the heart of Illinois in 1944. Today, more than 1,000 students pursue their undergraduate, seminary, and adult and graduate studies education at our main campus, extension sites located off campus, and online. Our alumni can be found across the United States and in more than 70 countries. LCU gives its students the knowledge, skills, and Biblical worldview to live their mission in the church, the workplace, and the world. LCU offers a variety of majors and degrees ranging from professional two-year associate degrees to the Doctor of Ministry. The school is historically associated with the Christian Church/Church of Christ, or Restoration (Stone-Campbell) Movement. Lincoln Christian is accredited by the Higher Learning Commission and is a member of the North Central Association of Colleges and Schools (www.ncahlc.org), as well as being accredited by the Association for Biblical Higher Education (www.abhe.org). The graduate-level Seminary is also accredited by the Association of Theological Schools in the United States and Canada (www.ats.edu). Additional information about Lincoln Christian University is available at www.lincolnchristian.edu.

Lincoln Christian University does not unlawfully discriminate in employment practices on the basis of race, color, national or ethnic origin, age, gender, disability, or prior military service. Lincoln Christian University encourages applicants who will contribute to the cultural diversity of the University to apply and to identify themselves if they wish. Federal guidelines clearly recognize the right of church-related institutions to seek personnel who will support the goals of the institution, including the right to select members of the church to which the institution is related.
